

MAGDALENA VALERIO CORDERO

---

Minister of Labour, Migration and Social Security.

Born 27 September 1959, in Torremocha (Cáceres), Spain.

Bachelor of Law (Complutense University of Madrid), 1985.

Tutor for prospective civil servants and coordinator of the Labour and Social Security area at the Adams Study Centre (1986-1990).

Career civil servant, member of the Social Security Management Corps, and of the Employment Management Corps of the Spanish Public Employment Service (INEM).

Section head for personnel at the Provincial Directorate of the Institute for the Elderly and Social Services (IMSERSO), Guadalajara (1991-1994).

Deputy Director of Financial and Administrative Management and Provincial Secretary at the provincial directorate of the National Health Institute (INSALUD), Guadalajara (1994-1999).

City Council Member and Spokesperson for the Socialist Party, Guadalajara City Council (1999-2005 and 2011-2015).

Provincial Delegate for Guadalajara of the Castilla-La Mancha Regional Council (1999-2003 and 2010-2011).

Deputy Mayor and Councillor for the Economy, Finance, Procurement, Assets and Citizen Participation, Guadalajara City Council (2003-2005).

President of the River Sorbe Water Association (MAS) (2003-2005).

Head of the Department of Labour and Employment, Castilla-La Mancha (2005-2007).

Head of the Department of Tourism and Handicrafts, Castilla-La Mancha (2007-2008).

Head of the Department of Justice and Public Administration, Castilla-La Mancha (2008-2010).

Regional Assembly Member, Castilla-La Mancha (2007-2010).

Secretary-General of the Socialist Party's Local Guadalajara Group (2008-2015).

Member of the Socialist Regional Executive for Castilla-La Mancha (2008-2012).

National Member of Parliament in the 10th Legislature (2011-2016).

Deputy Spokesperson for the Socialist Group of the Congress of Deputies (2014-2016).

Deputy Spokesperson for the Committee on Monitoring and Evaluation of the Toledo Pact Agreements (2012-2014).

Member of the Congress Standing Committee (2014-2016); Second Secretary of the Justice Committee Board; and member of the Employment and Social Security Committee and the Committee for Comprehensive Disability Policies.

Provincial Secretary for Infrastructure Investment, Castilla-La Mancha Regional Council (2016-2018).

Currently Executive Secretary for Social Security and the Toledo Pact on the Socialist Party's Federal Executive Committee.

On 7 June 2018, Magdalena Valerio became Spain's Minister of Labour, Migration and Social Security.