Adapting unemployment benefit systems to the economic cycle, 2011

1. Introduction ..................................................................................................................... 5
   1.1. European context ......................................................................................................... 5

2. UB systems and labour market incentives in the EEO countries ..................................... 10
   2.1. The design and financing of UB systems ..................................................................... 10
   2.2. Entitlement and eligibility criteria – who is eligible to receive unemployment benefit?  ................................................................. 11
   2.3. The level and duration of unemployment benefits and the question of ‘benefit traps’ ................................................................. 14
   2.4. Strengths and weaknesses of national UB systems ..................................................... 16

3. UB reforms during the crisis ............................................................................................. 18
   3.1. Reforms and adjustments to UB systems during the economic crisis .......................... 18
   3.2. Rationale for adapting unemployment systems and initial assessment of the reforms’ success ................................................................. 25
   3.3. Duration of the measures ................................................................................................ 28

4. Reform priorities within the Europe 2020 framework .................................................... 29
   4.1. Measures to strengthen activation policies and ALMPs .............................................. 29
   4.2. Improving benefits coverage and ‘making work pay’ ................................................ 31
   4.3. Additional reforms ..................................................................................................... 33

5. Conclusions ....................................................................................................................... 34